

HAPPINESS CALLING

by Nina Heyen

Its soft voice has been whispering in the background since before you were born.
Tugging at your shirt every once in a while when you stumbled over something you loved.
Silently sighing when you abandoned it.
Eagerly looking forward to each new crossroad, hoping this time you'd choose to follow without hesitation, without wondering whether you are worthy enough to receive this gift of grace.
It will keep calling, again and again, until you accept and embrace what has always been yours.
